THE CHURCH NOT RENT IN TWAIN. To the Editor of The Tribune.

In your issue of the 14th inst., your New Jersey correspondent has made a statement that is attrely untrue in some particulars, and unless contradicted will cause injury to the First Baptist Church, of Arlington. It is true that the Rev. H. W. Jones has tendered his resignation, to take ef-August 19, but we are not "rent in twain" on count of this resignation, and while deploring the en that necessitated the severance of the con-tion as pastor and people, we are not in the children that your correspondent would have your uders understand we are, and, far from being disbut at the present time.

marged, were never in better condition, than we are in at the present time.

As president of the Board of Trustees I am in position to state that the outlook was never more favorable than it is at the present time. The final layment on our lots for the new church building will be made next week, and while we recognize that the position we are in to-day is due largely to the untiring energy and consecrated zeal of our lastor, whom we regret to lose, we are not divided, are all in earnest and will this year be able to do all we expected to do with our new building project.

A NEW CHURCH FOR PASSAIC.

OTHER ERECTED.

ASSURY PARK TO ENTERTAIN THE THE HISTORIC CLD DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH TO BE VACATED AND AN-

> Passate, May 16 (Special).-At a meeting of the congregation of the old Dutch Reformed Church of Acquockanonk, in this city, held last week, it was decided, by a vote of 112 to 18, to vacate the present building and secure a new place and select plans and Mrs. Charles T. Meyer, Grant-ave, and Boule-for a suitable building, a committee consisting of vard, on Tuesday night, when their daughter, Theo-Daniel Demarest, W. A. Bogart, F. W. Soule, W. F. Gaston and G. V. De Mott were appointed to find A. Elmenadorf, rector of the Holy Cross Church. a site. The meeting to decide the change was only called after long contemplation on the part of the officers of the church, and the vote showed the popular feeling of the church. The present building was erected nearly years ago, on the site of the original church, which was built by the early Dutch settlers of this district in 1708. It is the oldest church of the denomination in the county and the graveyard and surroundings are among the city's most historic spots. Its organ-izers were the original Dutchmen, and for more than a century their descendants have worshipped at this place. From it has sprung nearly every church in the city, the principal offshoots being the North Reformed and the First Presbyterian. In latter years the Monroe Street Reformed and the True Reformed have been organized by those who were the sons of the old church. The result of the work started in this church has been almost unending, and it can well be said that religious work in northern New-Jersey was begun in the humble building erected by the ancient Dutch in old Acquockanonk, now Passaic City.

Only thirteen pastors have been called to this church in all these years, the last, the Rev. Arne

Only thirteen pastors have been called to this church in all these years, the last, the Rev. Arne Vennema, of Port Jervis, N. J., taking charge last? ovember. His predecessor, the Rev. John Gaston, served from 1889 to 1895.

The present membership of the old church is about five hundred, mainly made up of the wealthiest families in the vicinity. While it has always retained many of the customs peculiar to its founders, it never has lacked for progressive spirit, and mow that the need of the times demands a change, the church has not been backward in coming to the front. The growth of the city has been in the opposite direction from the location of the present building, and electric roads and the Eric railway hem it in on both sides, and removal was deemed a necessity. With the advent of the Rev. Mr. Vennema as pastor, this idea took a great hold on the people, and through his uniting efforts the change is now assured. There are many who revere the present location, and hate to see the old church vacated, but they refrain from making their objections felt. Besides being the oldest church society, it has the distinction of being the richest, and the surplus fund is now nearly $40,000. This, however, will not be touched, and the purchase of a site and the cost of building a new structure will be defrayed by public subscription.

Nothing definite can be stated now, but in all probability the new building will be erected in Prospect-st., between Pennington and Passaic aves. The proposed structure will cost in the neighborhood of $50,000, and will embrace all modern improvements.

SHOUTING FOR HOBART.

From The Unionist Gazette.

From The Unionist Gazette.

Why shouldn't New-Jersey be represented on the Republican National ticket? Only once has she been so honored, and that was the first year the party had a ticket, in 1806. She hasn't deserved the recognition since, because her electoral vote has been cast for the Democratic ticket every time but one.

But New-Jersey has been redeemed. The people have won, and they propose that the ten votes of New-Jersey in the Electoral College shall be cast for the Republican candidate, sound money and protection this year.

The man who has had as much to do with the turn in affairs here as any other, and possibly more, is Garret A. Hohart. With courage, faith and skill, he conducted last fail's campaign, and New-Jersey went 30,000 for Griggs. It was only a forerunner of this year. With Hobart on the ticket, forerunner of this year. With Hobart on the ticket, New-Jersey, New-York and Connecticut will be wheeled into the Republican line. In 1855 William Walter Phelps received 119 votes in the National Convention for Vice-President.

Whose har up for Hobart!
